Founders Day picnic Saturday for Waveland's Centennial celebration

BY ELLIS CUEVAS

An Old-fashioned Founders Day Picnic has been set for Saturday at Buccaneer State Park as part of Waveland's Centennial celebration.

The city of Waveland mailed invitations and a schedule of Centennial events to the residents Friday.

Mayor John Longo said in the letter, "We were entering the 'Gay Nineties' at the time of our founding, a time known for gaiety and excitement, and we hope to recapture this mood in all of our festivities throughout the year..."

The letter is an invitation to Waveland's citizens, friends and neighbors.

Saturday's picnic will be from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. with free admission at Buccaneer's Pavilion two and three with parking at the Wave Pool.

Participants are urged to bring chairs, tables, and or a blanket and a picnic lunch.

Hamburgers, hotdogs, barbecue beef and barbecue pork will also be available for sale.

Festivities at Saturday's picnic will include sack races, kite contest, maypole dance, etc. with awards for adults and children's divisions.

Awards for the Centennial Essay and Poster Contest will be presented at the Founders Day Picnic.

Music will be provided and we want everyone to have a great time, as this is a celebration for all ages, Longo said.

Among the many events planned in Waveland during their Centennial year, will be the dedication of a time capsule and new city flag to be unveiled on Saturday, July 2. These festivities are to begin at 10 a.m. at the City Hall on Coleman Avenue.

A fishing rodeo sponsored by the Jaycees for adults and children is scheduled for August 27. This, too, will be the dedication day for the Garfield Ladner Memorial Pier at the head of Terrace Avenue on Beach Boulevard.

Labor Day weekend will include the Annual Muscular Dystrophy Telethon and fire works display sponsored by the Waveland Civic Association.

Saturday, October 15, is to mark the final day officially celebrating Waveland's 100th birthday with a wide variety of events.

Many folks in the area have been researching clothing styles of the 1880's and 1890's, and everyone is urged to wear costumes of that era for October 15.

A big parade, titled 'A Pictorial History of Waveland', is scheduled for 2 p.m.

The parade is to include entries from all schools, churches, organizations, businesses and individual floats, marching groups, bicycles, etc., and is sponsored by the Waveland Civic Association.

For further information on the parade, contact Lawrence Freeman at 467-5606 or write for details, P.O. Box 73, Waveland, MS. 39576.

A spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Bourgeois-Stieffell-Ray American Legion Post is scheduled to follow the parade.

Closing ceremonies are scheduled to start at 8 p.m. conducted by City Officials and the Centennial Committee on October 15 at the Legion home.

Several events such as a Red Beans and Rice dinner, and a Street Dance have already been part of Waveland's Centennial celebration.

Numerous crepe myrtle trees have been planted by Waveland's officials as a beautification project for the Centennial festivities.

LONGFELLOW FATALITY—Tommy Powell, right, Hancock County deputy sheriff, checks the damage to station wagon after the jaws of life was used to remove Lonas Ferrell, 23, Rt. 3, Box 450, Bay St. Louis, who was pronounced dead at Hancock Medical Center. The accident occurred at approximately 6:55 a.m. Thursday on Longfellow Road by the Gulf-coast Memorial Cemetery and Mausoleum. Two witnesses following the vehicle reported to police that the accident occurred after the victim veered off the road and the driver turned the steering wheel to correct, the right front tire blew out and the car then flipped in midair and wrapped around a pine tree. Dennis Tartavouille, left, Hancock County deputy sheriff, said Ferrell was alone in the car and died instantly of internal injuries. (Echo staff photo by Ellis Cuevas)

Waveland aldermen declare against gill nets

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Waveland Board of Aldermen has taken a stand against gill nets.

The board voted Tuesday to ask the Hancock County Board of Supervisors for a ban on gill nets from April 1 to Oct. 1.

The vote was taken after Harold Schumann spoke to the board Tuesday, asking for the resolution because he is concerned about the possibility of net-related injuries to swimmers, boaters and other people using the beach for recreational purposes.

The board had earlier declined action on requests by two groups of fishermen regarding gill nets because, as City Attorney Lucien Gex pointed out, Waveland's boundaries extend only to the water's edge, giving the city no jurisdiction in the Mississippi Sound.

Alderman Barbara Rappold of Ward One had already stated her opposition to the nets. Her concern is that the city's latest recreation project, a 750-foot addition to the Garfield Ladner

Alcohol ordinance to be reworked

BY D.C. HARVILL

Bay St. Louis ordinance number 320, restricting the consumption of alcohol in the city, is to be "reworked," according to Mayor Victor Frankiewicz.

The ordinance forbids the consumption of alcohol and open glass containers on municipal property.

Everyone who offered comment on the ordinance at a public hearing held Tuesday said they thought the ordinance is flawed. Several of them stated they felt the ordinance to be discriminatory.

Mike Nami of The First Precinct Restaurant and Lounge suggested the ordinance be amended to include exceptions for the beach and Highway 90 because he feels they are resort areas.

New Orleans has an ordinance forbidding glass containers on the streets, Nami added, but allows you to drink anything from non-glass containers.

Jim Thompson joked that the no glass rule could present a problem if you have to carry a bottle across the street to your garbage can.

Tom Clarke said, "I am not in the alcohol business, but I am serving notice that you are trying to do something that can't be done. You are enacting an ordinance and giving (a business on the beach) an exception. You are passing that ordinance for St. Francis and Sycamore Street."

"How can an officer see a man drinking in front of a business on the beach without doing anything, then pass one on the corner of Sycamore and St. Francis and arrest him?"

"If you are going to draw a law, draw it so it applies to everybody."

Tyson McMahon, representing The Downtown Merchants Association, said the association agrees that the ordinance is discriminatory.

"We feel this gives it to one man to decide to whom the ordinance applies."

When asked if he had any suggestions for the reworking process, McMahon said he sympathizes with the officers on the street, but felt there already must be laws on the books that can be used to keep order on municipal property.

Frankiewicz said ordinance arose not only because of recent incidents at the corner of Sycamore and St. Francis but was due to a chain of incidents going back several years.

He said he hoped the ordinance could be reworked to the satisfaction of everyone.

In other business the council: —In accordance with a recommendation by the Planning and Zoning Commission, denied a zoning change requested for property near the new post office by Paul Vegas of Bay St. Louis.

Frankiewicz informed the council that other avenues were being investigated for the Vegas property.

Burleson gave this report, "The juveniles were working in the store when the subject came into the shop on Hancock Street and asked the boys to step into the bathroom with him. The boys refused. He then went up to one of the juveniles and asked him to open the cash register. The boy refused."

"The subject then punched the boy, grabbed a hammer and forced him to open the register. He then took an undisclosed amount of money, then moved the two clerks to a back room of the shop, and threatened them if they contacted police," Burleson added.

The subject was then seen on a black and red Murray bicycle headed towards Washington Street.

Late Friday Burleson reported a suspect was being held in Harris County Jail, Houston, Texas, and awaiting extradition.

Police would not release the suspect's name.

The case is being investigated by Burleson and Mark Ohman, Bay deputy chief.

In other police reports, three have been arrested and a fourth is being sought for the night-before-graduation vandalism of Bay Senior High.

Two adults have been arrested and one juvenile turned over to Hancock County Youth Court while a second juvenile is being sought, Burleson said.

The incident occurred on May 25, involving the school being egged, rolled and some 28 windows broken.

The two adults arrested in connection with the school incident are Shawn Blackwell, 18, Grosvenor Place, Waveland; and Joseph Gallegos, 18, Rt. 6, Box 497, Bay St. Louis, Burleson said.

Both were charged with malicious mischief, are out on $100 bond each, and await a preliminary hearing before John Chevis, Bay St. Louis municipal judge, Burleson said.

Reflections

Our Common Denominator

By Father Jerome
Ledoux, SVD

Time was when God was not only invisible, intangible and inaudible, but unreachable as well, at least to our satisfaction.

People of old prayed to the God they could not see, and were always left wondering just what kind of contact they had made.

It was painfully obvious that God was so far removed and so superior in every way that puny little humans were extremely insecure in their attempts to communicate with the Almighty.

That is, until there came One who at once was puny like the rest of us, yet almighty in his own right. He became the Bridge across the infinite abyss which separates Creator from creatures.

He became the Common Denominator which alone can make a godly relationship divisible by an earthly one.

From the beginning, both his divinity and his earthliness were quite clear. Conceived of the Holy Spirit without the medium of an earthly father and born of an immaculate virgin, his divine origin was trumpeted by angels at his birth.

However, that same birth took place under the most earthly conditions imaginable. Horses and cattle were comfortable there, because it was their natural element. A newborn babe and his mother, however, were well out of place and comfort.

Because of that very embarrassing birthplace and because of the subsequent ordinary life of that child, none of us feels put off by the overwhelming power of the Almighty. And so it has come to be that we feel comfortable in getting in touch with God.

By the same token, we believe that such contact with God is most meaningful, because Jesus proved by many signs, especially by rising from the dead, that, while his humanity is our bridge to God, his divinity is our assurance that we shall live forever.

Jesus is our Common Denominator with God first and foremost, because, without him, God's awe is too much for us.

After God, Jesus is our Common Denominator with each other.

Unfortunately, we are strongly inclined to see the natural differences which exist between us as barriers.

Nationality, color, origin, physical characteristics, language and culture are made to seem always divisive, never unitive.

By embracing the entire world wholesale, Jesus assured us most positively that God made peoples in dazzling variety and cherishes each and all with an incredibly intense love:

"God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son, that those who believe in him may not perish, but may have life everlasting." (John 3:16)

Whereas we use racial and ethnic differences to berate and discriminate, also with regard to Jews, Jesus, a Jew, is our Common Denominator who lifts us above all racism and ethnicism.

Jesus is our Common Denominator who erases the stigma of being born of low estate. After meditating on the cold, dank, smelly cattle cave where Jesus was born, we can only wallow in shame if we allow place or condition of birth to divide us.

Whereas we tend to take a dim view of those who have little for whatever reason, and of those who fail miserably in life, Jesus deprived himself of worldly goods and undersent abject failure in order that he might be our Common Denominator.

Jesus is our Common Denominator in all our human relationships, in our moments of ecstasy and our moments of agony, in our health and in our sickness, in our life and in our death—because he made himself one of us, experiencing our whole gamut of life.

Ladner changes plea

Hancock County Beat Three Supervisor Roger Dale Ladner has changed his plea on "Operation Pretense" charges to guilty.

Ladner, 41, of Standard, had entered a plea of innocent in December 1987 to to seven charges contained in a federal indictment resulting from the Federal Bureau of Investigation's "Operation Pretense," a crackdown on corrupt purchasing practices among Mississippi supervisors.

On Thursday, five of the charges were dropped after Ladner entered a guilty plea before U.S. District Judge Tom Lee in Jackson.

One count each of extortion and mail fraud are the remaining charges against the supervisor, who reportedly admitted taking about $597 in kickbacks while in public office.

Lee required Ladner to resign his office by July 31 but deferred the rest of the sentencing until 9 a.m. Sept. 6 so the supervisor could cooperate with federal authorities.

Ladner faces a maximum sentence of up to 25 years in jail and $500,000 in fines.

Former Beat Five Supervisor James Travirca, defeated in his bid for reelection, entered a guilty plea to mail fraud last month and former Beat Three Supervisor Sam Perniciaro, allowed to finish his most recent term because he was convicted only six weeks before it expired in January, pleaded guilty to mail fraud and extortion.

Both Travirca and Perniciaro are also awaiting sentencing.

Longfellow Road needs attention!

Thursday morning's fatality on Longfellow Road emphasizes the need for motorists to exercise extreme caution on this dangerous roadway.

Residents of the area have complained about the speed of vehicles using the road, which is a shortcut between Highway 603 and US-90.

Numerous accidents are happening on the road, which starts just inside the city limits of Bay St. Louis and skirts Waveland's boundaries.

We do not claim to be road engineers, but it is not hard to see some of the problems caused by no shoulders and deep ditches with sharp drop-offs on the side of the narrow road.

Hardly a week goes by without some type of accident on Longfellow Road.

A resident at the scene of Thursday's accident pointed out a spot where another serious mishap occurred just a week ago.

One resident even reported she secured a post office box, as she felt 'she took her life in her hands' the way she had to dodge traffic while she collected her mail from a rural box on the road's edge.

Several motorists have sustained serious injuries in accidents on Longfellow Road in recent years.

The preliminary plans are now underway for the construction of a multi-purpose complex at the County Fairgrounds on Longfellow; if this building materializes, then there will be more traffic added to this hazardous road.

A study of Longfellow Road should be given top priority by our Hancock County Board of Supervisors.

Governor's Column

By Gov. Ray Mabus

Soon I will be calling the Legislature back into special session to ask that they renew their efforts to reform county government.

This is a pocketbook issue that should concern every citizen of the state. Every day we delay reform, tax dollars are being wasted.

Every dollar that is misdirected or misspent represents a road not built, a school book not bought, a law officer not hired or a sick child not healed.

Many counties use some form of unit system, but it needs to be in place in all counties.

The Mississippi Legislature was well on the way to enacting a bill that would require counties to adopt the 'unit system' of government.

But negotiations between the House and Senate were cut short by a legislative deadline. I believe this issue is so important that lawmakers must have another opportunity to work on it.

Under the unit system, most county operations such as road maintenance and purchasing would be centralized instead of dividing them up among each of the five supervisor districts. This would provide better services at less cost.

A Mississippi State University study of Neshoba County showed a 53.8 percent savings in the cost of materials alone under the unit system of government.

If similar savings were multiplied statewide, nearly $30 million would likely be saved and available for other badly needed services, according to the Mississippi Economic Council, a private statewide economic development group.

Instead of paying $5.05 each for oil filters, Neshoba County paid $2.35 each after going to the unit system. They also saved 6 cents a gallon on gasoline after going to centralized purchasing under the unit system. These are representative of many of the savings that could be achieved.

But if taxpayers want to get the most for their money, counties must go to one central road maintenance department instead of maintaining five separate road maintenance operations as currently takes place in most counties.

Neshoba County had more than $150,000 in unnecessary road maintenance equipment before going to the unit system of government, according to the Mississippi State study.

Changing to the unit system of government would not lessen supervisors' ability to govern. They would pass a budget, develop plans and policies, and levy taxes. They would oversee the work of centralized operations and an administrative staff.

We must not forget, however, that more than 50 county supervisors in Mississippi have been indicted recently because the system of government in most counties today invites corruption.

The unit system of government will help put a stop to that. By reforming county government, we can put checks and balances into place that will guard against misuse of your money.

This issue is about your money. The unit system is necessary to ensure that you get the most for your hard-earned dollars.

Officers honored for efforts to make highways safer

Thirteen law enforcement officers will be honored as members of the 100 Club for their efforts to get drunken drivers off Mississippi highways, streets and roads at a June 21 luncheon in Jackson's Sheraton Inn North.

Each year, the Governor's Office of Federal-State Programs' Highway Safety Division presents certificates and pins to officers who issued at least 100 driving under the influence (DUI) citations during the previous year. The 1987 members issued a total of 1,547 DUI citations, an average of 119 per officer.

Officers named to the 100 Club, and number of DUI citations issued, are Douglas Arp, Vicksburg Police Department, 180; Robert Roncali, Forest Police Department, 133; Andrew Emerson, Meridian Vicksburg Police Department, 125; Michael R. Wilkie, Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol, 121; Paul K. Cox Jr., Flowood Police Department, 119; Dennis L. Darby, Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol, 119; D. L. Harper, Meridian Police Department, 115; Joe Young, Lowndes County Sheriff's Department, 110; Andrew L. Havard, Meridian Police Department, 108; Brian C. Harper, Clinton Police Department, 107; Rickie D. Marlair, Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol, 104; Truit Calhoun, Flowood Police Department, 103; and Thomas M. Mullins, Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol, 103.

Six of the officers—Arp, Emerson, Havard, Marlair, Wilkie and Young—are being honored as 100 Club members for the second time.

A subscriber questioned me Saturday as to whether we just rerun the stories and photos of accidents on dangerous Highway 603, as we have so many of them in the newspaper.

Highway 603 is a very active, dangerous highway and many accidents occur.

Everyone, especially those of us who have to travel the highway, cannot wait until the four-laning begins. There are many who would like to see the entire highway four-laned.

It is our understanding that the Highway Department should begin purchasing property in July for the four-laning from US-90 to a little above Interstate 10.

All we can do is ask motorists to use extreme caution when traveling on Highway 603, as it is a very dangerous highway.

In taking a short walk to the beach from home one night last week, I noted two vehicles traveling with only one headlight working.

It seems there are still several drivers of vehicles in operation with only one headlight operating properly and this is very dangerous.

Mississippi State Troopers have been checking vehicles for proper tags, licenses and equipment and have issued many tickets in recent months for violations.

Motorists should check their vehicles and make sure everything is operating, before using our roadways. One headlight operating on a vehicle is dangerous on a city street as well as a highway.

Several folks have commented in recent weeks to me about how youngsters are all over the place on bicycles.

On Thursday evening I witnessed three boys about age 10 or 12 riding bikes around the courthouse. If their parents could have seen the way they were acting and running up and down the streets, they may have been grounded for several weeks or had a hard time sitting down for a few days.

There are many boys and girls riding bicycles who observe the laws and pay attention to how they ride, and we really commend them.

The very few who do things without thinking at times are the bike riders whose parents should make sure they understand their responsibilities.

From years of experience, I know news reporters hate to cover accidents, and believe me, the feeling just doubles when a youngster is involved.

We want everyone to enjoy themselves, yet we want everyone to do it safely.

The road to county unit leads to significant tax dollar savings and the Mississippi Economic Council wants to be sure all Mississippians understand the value of the unit system of county road management.

Responding to an announcement from the Governor's Office that a special session of the Mississippi Legislature will be called to consider county unit legislation, the Council is making available to the public its information kit, "The Road to County Unit."

The information kit, said MEC President Bob Pittman, includes materials explaining the unit system, illustrating savings of tax dollars, citing studies of legislative committees calling for the system, and explaining how the unit system would operate in a county.

"There is no question," Pittman said, "but that enactment of a mandatory unit system in every county would save millions of tax dollars. The unit system, under which a single countywide system would replace the five systems which exist in most counties, would eliminate wasteful and extravagant uses of resources at a county level."

Pittman said those interested in county reform are invited to review the MEC materials.

"The Road to County Unit" may be obtained from the Mississippi Economic Council, P.O. Box 1849, Jackson, MS 39215-1849, (601) 969-0022.

Purchase price for the county unit kit is $5.

Pittman said the information kit would be helpful to school and civic groups studying local government or interested in local government improvement.

FELINE ELECTORATE rallies human support for Adopt-A-Cat Month. They're purr-fect candidates for the Office of Human Companion. Millions of homeless cats and kittens in animal shelters across the country hope voters will tip their hats off to cats this June during Adopt-A-Cat Month. For the 14th consecutive year, the campaign, sponsored by 9-Lives Cat Food for the American Humane Association, promotes feline adoption at more than 900 participating animal shelters, including Hancock Animal Shelter. The cause is top priority for Presidential contender Morris, the 9-Lives Cat, who himself came from humble beginnings at an animal shelter and will serve as national leader for Adopt-A-Cat Month. As an incentive to bring out cat lovers during adoption days, Morris and 9-Lives are offering a free gift to all June adopters. The shelter is located at 322 Gulfside Street in Waveland and is open Tuesday through Friday 9:45 a.m. until 4:45 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Coast Red Cross seeks blood drive volunteers

BILOXI—Volunteers are the lifeblood of the American Red Cross, providing valuable service to the public in many areas.

At present, the Mississippi Gulf Coast Chapter is in particular need of volunteers for blood drives, according to Liz Gaulke of the Red Cross.

"We are in need of RNs, LPNs and non-medical volunteers to work at blood drives in Harrison or Hancock Counties," Gaulke said. "Most drives are on weekdays between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. but there are some drives on weekends," she said.

Volunteers are needed to assist with registering donors, taking temperatures and serving refreshments. Medical volunteers are needed to take blood pressures and review medical histories.

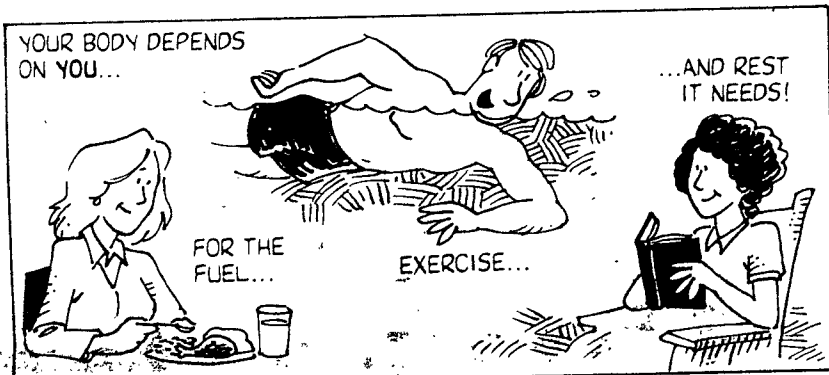

"This work can be rewarding and the benefits of working as a volunteer are great," Gaulke commented. "It gives you the opportunity to help others and provide a truly valuable community service. It gives you a chance to meet new people and the feeling of being needed," Gaulke added.

An increase in blood collections in Harrison and Hancock counties has brought about the need for more volunteers at blood drives.

"If a volunteer can give us at least four hours a month, it would help so much," Gaulke concluded.

For information about volunteer opportunities, call the Mississippi Gulf Coast Chapter of the Red Cross at 896-4511. In Hancock County, contact John Rutherford at 467-4244.

Fund established in memory of UM English Prof. David Holman

Friends, colleagues and former students of the late Dr. David Holman, assistant professor of English at The University of Mississippi, are establishing a memorial fund to defray funeral expenses and help his family get re-established.

The David Marion Holman Memorial Fund at United Southern Bank in Oxford honors one of the most popular Ole Miss professors for the past four years. Dr. Greg Schirmer, English department chairman and fund organizer, said Dr. Holman's students at Ole Miss and for six years prior had given him exceptionally high marks as a teacher.

Dr. Holman, 37, died suddenly of a heart attack on May 13, leaving his wife, Joella, and 2-year-old son, Jeff. If donations exceed the expenses which must be met, it is possible that a scholarship fund could be established with the remaining contributions.

Those wishing to contribute should send a check to: David Marion Holman Memorial Fund, United Southern Bank, 1124 Van Buren, Oxford, MS 38655.

Boat fire injures one

BY DENA BISNETTE

A man injured in a Friday afternoon boat explosion in Bay St. Louis has been released from Hancock Medical Center.

Pamela Crane said her father, William Knight of Olive Branch, suffered burns on the back of his legs and on one arm when the 20-foot inboard-outboard type boat he was riding in exploded at about 5:30 p.m. in front of the American Legion Veterans Memorial Pier Friday.

She said he was released from the hospital Saturday morning.

Although the boat was heavily damaged and sank, two other occupants of the vessel, Ray Deprea of Bay St. Louis and Terry Crane of Pearl River, La., both escaped injury.

Pamela Crane said the three men were picked up "within 15 minutes" but she does not know who their rescuers were because about 20 fishing boats in the area went to their assistance after the fishermen aboard saw the explosion.

Bay St. Louis Fire Department responded to the pier to assist with the rescue.

She added that no one aboard knew what triggered the explosion.

School board discusses summer session, lands

BY D.C. HARVILL

The Hancock County School Board at a meeting Monday discussed options available to the school system for providing courses to students needing to attend summer school.

D. E. Hillman, principal of Hancock North Central, explained that the system had planned to have students attend classes at Long Beach as part of a consortium with other school systems. That plan, Hillman stated, had been scrapped and Hancock has "had to scramble to get enough students to hold classes."

The school system in the past was able to lump different divisions of the same course together in one class for the summer session to get enough money to pay a teacher, but, according to Hillman, schools are now forbidden from doing so by the education reform act.

"Under the reform act we aren't able to get enough money to pay (summer school) teachers what they should be making," Hillman said.

An alternative may be for the students to attend classes at Pearl River Central, according to Superintendent Terrell Randolph.

In other business:

—Berlon Lee, of Columbia, approached the board with a proposal to lease 16th section property on Highway 43 adjoining 31 acres he now has leased.

Bids previously taken for the property were rejected by the board because they were too low; the highest bid was $10.50 per acre.

The board informed Lee that the property was being readvertised for bids, with a minimum set at $12.50 and if satisfactory bids were not received then the board would negotiate with him.

—Rhea Scaffidi, school food supervisor, informed the board that on its first day of operations the Summer Food Program served lunches to 231 children at county schools.

The program is a federally funded project to provide free lunches to children from one to 18 years old. Adults also may take advantage of the program at a cost of $1.75.

The program is open to anyone, and will be in operation Monday to Friday until July 29th.

Scaffidi informed the board that Hancock has joined a food group with four other school systems.

The group will use the same bid documents and will test food for quality. Advantages of this arrangement, according to Scafidi, are that supply companies will know the schools will not accept unsatisfactory food, and time will be saved for the companies.

Eddie Danzey, assistant superintendent in charge of maintenance and busing, asked the board to give authorization for United Services, a maintenance company, to hire five extra workers to handle painting at county schools.

Danzey said that 40 classrooms need painting, requiring approximately 1600 hours labor.

Since the system already has a contract with the company, the board agreed to make an addendum to the contract allowing the hiring provided liability insurance terms can be worked out to the satisfaction of both parties.

The board decided to request that the medical bills for a kindergarten student, who was run over by a county bus, be forwarded to the school district.

Danzey said that a medical examination of the child, whose foot was run over on May 5th, indicated no bones had been broken.

$1300 damage was done to another bus on the last day of school when, in foggy conditions, a car slammed into its side.

—During the next school term seniors will be required to attend classes 175 days, meaning that they will not be allowed to have senior days at the end of the school year.

The State Board of Education decided the 175-day term will be mandatory at a meeting held recently in Hancock County.

Realty firm staff expanded

Herb Dubuison, president of ERA Bayshore Realty in Waveland, reports Edith Ferrell, Flo Koopman, and Kicki Casano, formerly of C-21 Haik and Associate have joined the Bayshore Realty sales staff.

Dubuison stated that the addition of the three agents will bring the Bayshore sales staff to 14 as well as add "valuable real estate experience to the firm."

Edith Ferrell of Bay St. Louis has 13 years experience in real estate.

Ferrell who first joined the Board of Realtors in 1979 has been a consistent million dollar producer since 1980 as well as a member of the Million Dollar Round Table since 1984.

Flo Koopman who also resides in Bay St. Louis has been a realtor since 1981.

Koopman's first year to become a million dollar producer was 1982. She has been a member of the Million Dollar Round Table since 1986. Koopman has also received the Board of Realtors Ruby award for having completed the most residential transactions.

Kicki Casano who lives in Pass Christian became a real estate sales associate in 1987. Since becoming a sales associate Casano has continually demonstrated a sincere desire to serve and assist her clients. Casano has already helped two families find their new homes since joining ERA Bayshore.

By joining ERA Bayshore Realty which is affiliated with ERA Real Estate, Ferrell, Koopman, and Casano will be able to offer homebuyers and sellers a wide variety of products and services.

"Farmweek" looks at antique equipment

"Farmweek" will visit the good ol' days down on the farm on the Monday, June 20, edition.

At 7:30 p.m. ETV's weekly farm information series visits with members of the "Valley Flywheelers," men from all over Mississippi and the nation who collect old farm engines, tractors and implements and restore them to working order.

These amateur collectors and preservationists tell "Farm-week" viewers how they became interested in the pieces, many of which date back to the early 1900's, and why they want to recapture the way the equipment was in its prime.

A production of Mississippi ETV and the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service, "Farmweek" presents farm market information, market analyses, weather reports and local, state and national agricultural news.

Memorial Pier, could be affected by gill netting.

"What's the use of building a pier if you don't have any fish," she said.

She made the motion for the resolution and was seconded by Stella Frlot, alderman of Ward Four, had been in office about a week when she went before the supervisors to explain that the Waveland board is opposed to gill netting. Gex will draw up the resolution to make that opposition official.

In a related matter, the board agreed on regulations governing the pier extension, which will be lighted and have running water for drinking fountains and fish cleaning areas. The American Legion Post 77 parking lot on Terrace Avenue will serve as temporary parking and portable toilets will be provided.

The board decided to charge $12 annually for local residents to use the facility, with day use fees set at $3 for a local resident, $5 for a non-resident and $1 for children.

Jahncke-Levy

Trinity Episcopal Church in Pass Christian was the setting for the May 28 wedding of Lynn Michelle Levy of Milwaukee, Wisc. and Robert Herbert Jahncke Jr. of Barrington, Ill. Officiating at the wedding were the Reverend Bronson Bryant of Trinity Episcopal and the Reverend Arthur Johnson of Christ Episcopal Church in Bay St. Louis.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Ann Hubbard Levy of Whitefish Bay, Wisc. and Dr. Donald Morris Levy of River Hills, Wisc. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Dorothy Thompson Hubbard of Waveland and the late Robert Garland Hubbard Jr. and Mrs. Leontine DeRocha of Bay St. Louis and the late Leo Levy.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herbert Jahncke of Fullerton, Calif. He is the grandson of Mrs. Alpheus Beane of West Palm Beach, Fla. and the late Harry Souchon of New Orleans and Mr. Herbert Grant Jahncke of New Orleans and the late Margaret Henriques Jahncke of New Orleans.

Nuptial music was provided by John Mason, soloist, and Tom Bourdin, organist.

Given in marriage by her mother and father, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin with a high lace collar on a yoke of English net. The fitted bodice was appliqued with venise lace medallions enhanced with pearls and crystals and butterfly sleeves. A peplum formed at the waist and tapered to the back with a majestic self bow above the slim skirt with an inverted V-hemline bordered with lace and a detachable chapel-length train. She wore a headband of pearls and crystals with pearl sprays and silk flowers which held a fingertip veil of illusion secured to the headpiece with a pearl decorated pouf of illusion.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white sweetheart roses, gardenias, baby's breath and ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Carolyn Ann Schath of Omaha, Neb.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Andrea Levy Pierce of Milwaukee, sister of the bride; Mrs. Julie Sampson Carlin of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Michelle Lavon Orlin of Waveland, cousin of the bride.

Junior bridesmaid was Miss Marie Louise Plauche Phillips of Waveland.

The attendants were identically attired in peach iridescent taffeta dresses each with sweetheart neckline, V-back and fitted bodice with dropped waist above a full bubble skirt. Large shoulder bows formed the sleeves of the dresses. They wore hairpieces of silk blossoms in matching color with baby's breath and pearl sprays.

They carried cascade bouquets of peach sweetheart roses, gardenias and ivy accented by baby's breath.

Best man was Mr. Heng-I Lu of Irvine, Calif.

Groomsmen were Mr. James Frederick Jahncke of San Ramon, Calif., brother of the groom; Mr. Jay Frederick Collins of Santa Barbara, Calif. and Mr. Ryan Neil Christensen of Fullerton.

Junior groomsman was Mr. Brian David Erickson of Waveland, cousin of the bride.

Ushers were Mr. Donald Morris Levy Jr. of Washington, D.C. and Mr. Gregg Robert Levy of Milwaukee, brothers of the bride; and Mr. Michael Blair Orlin of New Orleans and Mr. Victor York Levy of New Orleans, cousins of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a tea-length gown of peach cluny lace.

The groom's mother chose a pale aqua tea-length gown of lace over a trumpet skirt with inserts of gauze. Her hat was accented with peach and aqua roses.

A dinner dance reception followed the ceremony at the Diamondhead County Club in Bay St. Louis.

On their return from The Bitter End resort on Gorda in the Virgin Islands, the couple will reside in Barrington, Ill.

Well, old members, what is the problem? Surely you can't be too busy for one hour! Are old habits keeping you from coming back? Habits hold the key. It takes at least three weeks of practice to change an old way of doing something. Be persistent. We're all trying. Why aren't the rest of you?

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and Ladies Auxiliary on national, state and local levels urge all citizens to fly their flags on Flag Day, June 14.

"On June 14, 1777, 211 years ago, the Marine Committee of the Continental Congress adopted a resolution which gave birth to our National Flag. The resolutions read:

"Resolved that the Flag of the United States be made of 13 stripes, alternate red and white, that the union be 13 stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

On May 30, 1916, President Woodrow Wilson announced, during his Memorial Day address, that June 14 of each year would be celebrated as Flag Day.

Today, our flag is recognized as the symbol of a nation that not only honors man's continuing struggle for freedom, but as one with a truly unique system of government. Unique because it's predicated on the premise that government be concerned with what can be done for its citizens, not on what can be done to its citizens.

On Flag Day, June 14, 1988, patriotic Americans are encouraged to display and pay homage to our National Flag.

Americanism is one of the programs promoted by Post 3253 Ladies Auxiliary on national, state and local levels.

Ballet competition names jury chairman

JACKSON—The IV USA International Ballet Competition is being planned for June 17-July 1, 1990, in Jackson, Mississippi, host city for the United States. USA Competition Executive Director Sue Lobrano announced that Bruce Marks, Artistic Director of Boston Ballet, has been named Chairman of the International Jury to succeed Robert Joffrey who died Mar. 25 in New York City.

"Having served as jury chairman for all three previous USA Competitions in 1979, 1982 and 1986, Mr. Joffrey was totally committed to the artistic integrity of the event and to upholding the highest of standards," said Ms. Lobrano. "We are very confident that we have found these same qualities in Bruce Marks."

In accepting the position Mr. Marks stated, "Following in the footsteps of my teacher, Robert Joffrey, is not an easy thing to do. He was a national and international spokesperson for the art of dance and represented the best of the USA has to offer. I am honored by the invitation."

A native of New York City, Mr. Marks received his performing arts education from the New York School of Performing Arts, Juilliard School of Music, and Brandeis University. He joined the Metropolitan Opera Ballet Company as a premier danseur in 1958 and the American Ballet Theatre in 1961 as a principal. In 1971, he became the first American principal dancer with the Royal Danish Ballet and remained there for five years.

Before assuming his position as Artistic Director of Boston Ballet in 1985, Mr. Marks served as Artistic Director of Ballet West.

Serving as co-chairman of the competition's National Advisory Council are Estelle Sommers, Vice President of Capezio Dance-Theatre Shops, and William Como, Editor-in-Chief of Dance Magazine. Mr. Como also served on the Founding Committee for the first International Ballet Competition held in Jackson in 1979 and was a member of the Artistic Advisory Council for the III USA Competition in 1986.

The USA event, which takes place every four years, is sanctioned by the International Theatre Institute, Permanent Committee on Dance, a non-governmental auxiliary branch of UNESCO. Other international ballet competitions to receive the ITI sanction are Varna, Bulgaria; Moscow, U.S.S.R.; and Helsinki, Finland.

For more information, please write the USA International Ballet Competition, P.O. Box 55791, Jackson, MS 39216 or call (601) 982-0662.

Carey Dinner Theatre schedule announced

Carey Dinner Theatre, William Carey College, Hattiesburg, has announced the schedule of productions for its 14th season. Following a tradition of long standing, two musical revues will be presented.

Opening the 1988 season on June 16 will be "S Wonderful, 'S Marvelous, 'S Gershwin," which spotlights the songs of American musical genius, George Gershwin. The title is derived from a lyric in a Gershwin classic, "S wonderful, 's marvelous that you should care for me."

The Gershwin offering, which runs through July 2, features arrangements by Ray Allen, who recently was in New York to direct a national touring production of the Broadway musical, "The Mystery of Edwin Drood." The revue was first presented at New Stage in Jackson.

The second production, "Gotta Sing, Gotta Dance," which runs July 12 through 23, was conceived by New York producer Larry Alford. This fast-paced revue includes arrangements by Keith Thompson, Carey Dinner Theatre's first musical director. Thompson is a professional musician now based in New York.

Dinner is served at 7 p.m. in the O. L. Quave Theatre on the Hattiesburg campus of William Carey College, and the performance follows. The admission price of $12.50 includes dinner and show.

Seats may be reserved by calling 601/582-6221. The box office will open on June 7, and will be open through the season from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m., daily, except Sundays and July 4.

Diamondhead Theatre to present 'The Shaky Tale of Dr. Jakey'

Diamondhead Little Theatre is offering an old-fashioned melodrama (with a twist, however) to start summer off with fun, laughs and hisses.

"The Shaky Tale of Dr. Jakey" opens Wednesday, June 22 at the Diamondhead Country Club and continues Thursday and Friday, June 23 and 24.

Ed Scanlan is directing a large cast of familiar and new faces whose roles include young lovers, older lovers, hero, villainess, dancing girls, town officials and gossips, potential patients, and self-styled lookers-on. Since Dr. Jakey is the inventor and peddler of various cures for whatever ails you, his relationship with the town doctor is scarcely harmonious.

As always, this is a dinner-theatre combination, with cash bar at 6 p.m., dinner at 6:30, and curtain at 8 p.m.

Price is $17.50 with a $2.50 reduction for DLT members. Call 255-1814 or 255-7826 for reservations and tickets, or mail to DLT, 5300 Diamondhead Circle, Bay St. Louis, MS 39520.

Mississippi musicians perform works by three Spanish composers on the next edition of PRM's 'Mississippi Concert Hall,' Thursday, June 16, at 9 a.m., with a rebroadcast Sunday, June 19, at 1 p.m.

Livingston, a native of Cleveland, currently resides in New York. This performance was recorded at the Larry Thompson Center for Fine Arts in Clarksdale.

Giovanni De Chiaro, faculty guitarist at the University of Southern Mississippi, performs Sonatina by Frederico Moreno Torrova. This performance was recorded at a recital at Hinds Junior College in Raymond.

"Mississippi Concert Hall" is produced by William Fulton.

Public Radio in Mississippi, a division of Mississippi ETV, is broadcast statewide, including on FM frequency 90.3, Biloxi.

SURVIVAL SPECIALS follows a family of dwarf mongooses through Kenya's Tsavo National Park in "Together They Stand." The program which explores the animals' incredibly sophisticated organization and communications system airs at 8 p.m. Wednesday June 15 on METV, Ch. 19.

USDA offers suggestions on microwave cooking

They cook meals quickly and easily, and over half of American households now have one. They're microwave ovens.

But what special steps should be taken to cook meat and poultry in them? The U.S. Department of Agriculture's tollfree Meat and Poultry Hotline (1-800-535-4555) gets many calls on this issue. Here are answers to some of the most frequently asked questions.

Q. I know cooking kills bacteria like salmonella in meat and poultry. What about microwaving?

A. With a microwave you risk uneven cooking, which can leave "cold spots." When thoroughly cooked, the thickest part of any beef or pork cut should reach 160 degrees F. for medium doneness; 170 degrees for well-done. Poultry is thoroughly cooked when the fleshy parts reach 185 degrees F.

Check your oven manual for time, power level and other concerns. Cook meat and poultry in a covered dish or cover with plastic wrap to produce steam heat, a better killer of bacteria than dry air. Turn the dish a half turn several times during cooking. Pay special attention to the number of minutes recommended for letting cooked food stand outside the oven before you serve it—this completes the cooking process.

Q. Can I cook a beef roast in my microwave, or is it just for heating TV dinners?

A. Yes, and your roast can be even more tender than if you put it in a regular oven. The secret is to cook it slowly at a low temperature, and rotate it several times during cooking for even heating.

Also, remove large bones from the meat before cooking. Bone is dense and shields the tissue around it from microwaves.

Generally, ground meats do well in the microwave as do less tender cuts like chuck, stew meat or rolled rump roasts. Choose pieces that are even in shape, size and thickness.

Beef reheats well in the microwave too.

Q. Is it safe to cook pork in a microwave?

A. Since pork can contain parasites which cause trichinosis, a rare but serious disease, careful and thorough cooking is suggested. To ensure the microwave doesn't leave uncooked "cold spots" in the pork, cover the dish tightly and turn it a half turn a couple of times during cooking. For large pork cuts, use an oven cooking bag.

Finally, observe the correct standing time to complete cooking.

Q. Is there any meat that cooks better in a microwave?

A. Microwaved bacon won't shrivel up as much, is crisper and less greasy. Four average slices of bacon, placed between paper towels, will cook in about 3 minutes.

Q. How can I brown meats in a microwave?

A. If a large piece of meat will be in the microwave 10 minutes or longer, it will brown somewhat. For deeper browning, place microwaved meat under the broiler for a minute or two. Or try spices and sauces for a "browned" look.

Q. What's the best way to microwave a meat-and-vegetable casserole?

A. Microwaves conduct heat inward to the center of foods, so use a round casserole dish. If both your meat and vegetables are raw, cut them into small cubelike shapes. Pre-cook the meat on a high setting for 5 minutes in 1/2 cup of water. Drain off the juice and add a clear 1/2 cup of water plus the vegetables. To add fresh vegetable to leftover cooked meat, pre-cook the vegetables slightly.

The point is that for the meat and vegetables to be done at the same time, they must start off roughly the same size and tenderness.

Stir the casserole and rotate the dish a half turn several times during cooking.

Research improves tomato processing

By Linda S. Moore
Mississippi Cooperative
Extension Service

Recent re-evaluations in home canning practices have resulted in significant changes in the recommended methods of tomato preservation.

Specialists are no longer recommending tomatoes be exclusively hot packed—that is, peeled, boiled and packaged. Packaging of raw tomatoes, which was once discouraged for fear of bacteria, is now considered an accepted method of preservation if steps are taken to properly acidify the tomatoes.

This is the first year for tomato acidity to be a major issue in tomato preservation in our state, said Melissa Mixon, human nutrition specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

"Although they are usually considered to be an acid food, some tomatoes may be slightly low in acidity—requiring lemon juice or citric acid to be added to them for processing," Mixon said. "As a result of the re-evaluation, all tomato products must be acidified unless they are preserved by freezing."

The specialist said that even though many home canners have been processing tomatoes for years without acidifying them, the danger of food poisoning or spoilage is present.

"We've got to be willing to change according to the research. Safety is the bottom line," Mixon said. "In the past we have just been lucky not to have had more cases of botulism, and the number of dollars lost to spoiled home canned food is unpredictable."

Mixon warns that the more ripe a tomato is when processing, the lower the acid level, and therefore, the more danger. Tomatoes that come from a vine that has been killed by frost are also lower in acidity. Tomatoes should be canned at their peak stage of ripeness for optimal quality and safety.

Mixon recommends that for processing in pint containers, one tablespoon of bottled lemon juice or 1/4 teaspoon of citric acid be added to each jar. For quart jars, add two tablespoons of bottled lemon juice or 1/2 teaspoon of citric acid to each jar.

"If by acidifying, the tomato becomes too acid in tasting, add sugar to offset the acid flavor," Mixon said.

In addition to the acidifying recommendation of all tomato products, changes have occurred in the length of time tomatoes and other garden vegetables should be processed in a boiling water bath.

"New processing times for canning tomatoes in a pressure canner are also now available," Mixon said. "Don't depend on literature from past years with processing times. Contact the extension home economist for the most current recommendations."

BE IT ORDAINED BY the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Waveland:

Section 1: The provisions of Section 21-19-11 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as Amended, are hereby adopted and made effective in and applicable to the City of Waveland.

Section 2: The governing authority of any municipality is hereby authorized and empowered, on its own motion, or upon the receipt of a petition requesting the municipal authority to so act signed by a majority of the residents residing upon said street or alley within three hundred (300) feet of any parcel of land alleged to be in need of cleaning, to give notice to the property owner by U.S. registered mail or certified mail, return receipt requested, recited by addressee only, three (3) weeks before the date of a hearing, or by service of notice as provided in this section by a police officer at least three (3) weeks before the date of a hearing, or if the property owner be unknown or his address unknown, then by three (3) general notices in the municipality, of a hearing to determine whether or not any parcel of land is in such a state of uncleanness as to be a menace to the public health and safety of the community. If, at such hearing, the governing authority shall, in its resolution, adjudicate such a parcel of land in its then condition to be a menace to the public health and safety of the community, the governing authority shall, if the owner does not do so himself, proceed to have the land cleaned by cutting weeds, filling ditches, removing rubbish, dilapidated fences, outside toilets, dilapidated buildings and other debris; and draining cesspools and standing water therefrom. Thereafter, the governing authority may, at its next regular meeting, by resolution adjudicate the actual cost of cleaning the said property and the cost may become an assessment against the same. However, the action herein authorized shall not be undertaken against any one (1) parcel of land more than three (3) times in any one (1) calendar year, and the expense of cleaning of said property shall not exceed an aggregate amount of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per year.

Section 3: The assessment above provided for shall be a lien against said property and may be enforced in the office of the circuit clerk of the county as other judgments are enforced, and the tax collector of the municipality shall, upon order of the board of governing authorities, proceed to sell said land to satisfy said lien as now provided by law for the sale of lands for delinquent municipal taxes. All decisions rendered under the provisions of this section may be appealed in the same manner as other appeals from municipal boards or courts are taken.

Section 4: The form and mode of notice shall be in accordance with the sections of Section 21-19-11.

Section 5: Ordinance No. 87, and Ordinance No. 135 and any and all other Ordinances contrary to this Ordinance shall be and they are hereby repealed. Section 6: This Ordinance being necessary for the immediate and temporary preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective from and after its passage.
